

Undone Divas

Squeeezzze over-Victor Borge Bette Midler, and Anna Russell-there's a new divinely demented diva to share the stage! Madelene Capelle has been called "The Diva of the Unusual: a musical comedienne with a voice from heaven and timing as sharp as a pitchfork." Her show," Undone Divas" romps through the hallowed halls of opera like "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" performed in St. Peter's. She grabs the doomed damsels of classical tragedy and turns them into the broads of "Rhapsody, Rap, and Rock."

This 80-minute show has enough jokes, sight gags, extravagant costumes costumes-yes there are lots of feathers and glitter-to live up to its hometown of Las Vegas.

See why "Undone Divas" has been called "a one woman musical frenzy." By the time Capelle is finished- ~~totally undone~~-there are enough TWISTED PERSONALITIES littering the stage, and enough breathtaking melodies filling the air to keep you chuckling and humming for years.

You don't have to know a thing about opera to love this show-Capelle sweeps you up and carries you along every minute. And if you are an opera buff-well, get ready to think you've died and gone to heaven.
